Dynex Liquid Alpha 3x CHF Certificate, issued by Deutsche Bank London, captures the return stream of an investible manager talent basket available via Deutsche Bank's db Select platform. DynexCorp Ltd, the Basket Composer, uses its proprietary Liquid Alpha strategy, which relies on sophisticated computational technology throughout the investment process as a continuous allocation and risk management tool. Manager evaluations and basket recompositions are implemented algorithmically using daily returns reported by Deutsche Bank London, the Basket Calculation Agent. The Dynex Liquid Alpha 3x CHF Certificate monthly returns are marked in blue.
